

Rules of order
Fulton County, IL Board
2024-2026 term

Article I. General

- 1.01 The organizational meeting of the Fulton County board shall be held at 6:00 p.m. On the first Monday of the month in December following the bi-annual election, the board shall elect a chair and vice chair from the membership by a majority vote of the membership. The chair and vice chair shall be elected for a 2-year term or until their successor is elected.
- 1.02 Regular meetings of the Fulton County board shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month unless otherwise specified by law or by resolution. All meetings of the county board shall be held in the Fulton County courthouse and commence at 6:30 p.m. unless otherwise specified by law or by resolution. The chairperson shall have the authority to postpone a meeting due to an emergency.
- 1.03 Special meetings of the Fulton County Board may be called in the manner prescribed by law. (55 ILCS 5/2-1002)
- 1.04 The ex-officio clerk of the county board shall be required to furnish a copy of an agenda for any regular or special meetings to each member of the board at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of said meeting and shall give public notice in the manner prescribed by law.
- 1.05 Compensation for meetings attended shall be limited to one (1) per diem per day. However, in extraordinary circumstances, an additional per diem per day may be granted by prior approval of the chair.

Article II. Meeting requirements during a disaster declaration

- 2.01 A disaster declaration by the governor or the Illinois Department of public health allows for an open or closed meeting by audio or video conference, without the physical presence of a quorum of the members, so long as the following conditions are met:
- (a) All or part of the jurisdiction of Fulton County is covered by the disaster area;
 - (b) The county board chairperson determines that an in-person meeting is not practical or prudent because of a disaster;
 - (c) Standard 48-hour notice of a meeting must be provided, except for an emergency meeting, to all members of the county board, posted at the meeting location, on the Fulton County website and provided to any news media that has requested notice;
 - (d) If attendance at the regular meeting location is not feasible due to the disaster, alternative arrangements must be made and the notice of the meeting must include the arrangements that will provide live public access to hear all parts of the open meeting (i.e., phone number or web-based link);
 - (e) Each board member participating in a meeting by audio or video conference for a meeting is considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and participating in all proceedings;

- (f) At least one member of the county board or the state’s attorney must be physically present at the meeting location unless it is not feasible due to the disaster (other members of the public body may attend in person or remotely);
- 2.02 During the meeting, participating members of the county board must be verified and must be able to hear one another, as well as hear all discussion and testimony;
- 2.03 All votes must be by roll call, identifying each county board member and recording their vote on each issue;
- 2.04 Standard minutes of all meetings must be kept, approved, and made available for public review as usual; and a verbatim audio or video recording of all meetings held under these provisions must be made and must be available to the public for review. These recordings are public records and must be maintained.

Article III. Order of business

Article IV. Quorum

- 4.01 Eight members of the county board (including the chair) shall constitute a quorum.
- 4.02 Committee quorums shall be determined by the total number of committee members as follows:
 - (a) Any committee consisting of 3 members shall meet quorum with 2 members present, majority of a quorum is 2;
 - (b) Any committee consisting of 4 members shall meet quorum with 3 members present, majority of quorum is 3;
 - (c) Any committee consisting of 5 members shall meet quorum with 3 members present, majority of quorum is 3;
 - (d) Any committee consisting of 6 members shall meet quorum with 4 members present, majority of quorum is 3;
 - (e) Any committee consisting of 7 members shall meet quorum with 4 members present, majority of quorum is 3.

Article V. Chair

- 5.01 The chair shall preserve order and decide questions of order subject to appeal to the board without debate.
- 5.02 The chair, with the advice and consent of the board, shall appoint all committees.

- 5.03 When two or more members arise at once, the chair shall name the member who is first to speak.
- 5.04 No motion shall be debated or put to a vote unless first seconded. When a motion is seconded, it shall be stated by the chair or read by the clerk before debate. Every such motion shall be reduced to writing if required by the chair or any member of the board.

Article VI. Vice-chair

- 6.01 The vice chair shall perform duties as assigned by the chair, and as such shall represent the chairperson.
- 6.02 In the absence of the chair, the vice chair shall assume the chair's duties.
- 6.03 If the chair is vacant a new chairperson shall be elected from the members of the board at the next regular board meeting.

Article VII. Roll Call

- 7.01 The yeas and nays shall be ordered when called for by any member of the board. When calling the roll or polling a vote, the clerk shall call the names of the members, including the chair, in progressive alphabetical order.

Article VIII. Public Remarks

Members of the public who wish to address the board must provide the chairperson with prior written notice of their intent to speak. The written notice shall identify the name and address of the speaker, as well as a short statement indicating the speaker's topic. Each citizen is limited to five (5) minutes. Citizens' remarks shall not exceed thirty (30) minutes per meeting.

Article IX. Members

- 9.01 All committee business shall be presented by some member of the presenting committee.
- 9.02 If a board member desires to make a presentation or offer a resolution, notice of said business shall be presented to the ex-officio clerk in writing not less than Thursday noon prior to its presentation at any meeting of the county board. The ex-officio clerk shall place the item on the agenda under special caption.
- 9.03 Every member, before speaking, shall raise their hand and wait for the chair to give them the floor.
- 9.04 No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave from the chair and shall not occupy more than ten minutes the first time, nor more than five minutes the second time.
- 9.05 A member called to order, whether by the chair, or by any member of the board, shall immediately refrain from speaking until decision, and if there is no appeal, the decision of the chair shall be conclusive.
- 9.06 Members present at the meeting of the board, including the chair, shall vote on all questions submitted, except where directly interested, or otherwise excused for good cause by the chair. Failure to comply shall constitute a "nay" vote on the question.
- 9.07 Members with a conflict of interest shall refrain from voting. A conflict of interest shall be defined as set forth in Illinois law and administrative rule.

- 9.08 No member shall leave the room while the board is in session without first obtaining permission of the chair.
- 9.09 No claim that has been presented to the board and rejected shall, at any subsequent meeting, again be brought before the board except by a two-thirds vote of the entire board.
- 9.10 All votes for appropriation of money exceeding in amount the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) shall be taken by roll call.
- 9.11 After a motion is stated by the chair, or read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the board, but may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of their second, at any time before the decision of the chair.
- 9.12 The rules may be suspended in any particular case by two-thirds vote of the members present.
- 9.13 The motion to reconsider a motion shall only be made by a member voting with the majority.
- 9.14 A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate, unless a question of the time to adjourn shall be included in the motion.
- 9.15 The rules of parliamentary practice, comprised of Roberts rules of order, shall govern the board in all cases not inconsistent with the standing rules of this board.

Article X. Standing Committees

- 10.01 All standing committees of the board shall be appointed by the chair of the board with the advice and consent of the board, which shall occur at the regular organizational meeting. All committees shall be composed of members of this board. No county board member whose term has expired, nor any board member who has been removed from office, shall continue to serve on any committee of which they are a member. The chair of the Fulton County Board shall be an ex-officio member of all standing committees.
- 10.02 In the event that a chair of any committee of the Fulton County board learns that a member of their committee will be absent at a scheduled meeting, then the chair of said committee may contact another member of the Fulton County board to serve on said committee for that absent committee member. This substitution shall be for that scheduled meeting only. If a quorum is not present, the chair of the board may be substituted for any member to establish quorum.
- 10.03 At the organizational meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable, the chair shall distribute to each board member a list of committee assignments, which are subject to board approval.
- 10.04 Committees may be combined/separated as shown on the "Committee List" assignments, which are subject to board approval.
- 10.05 The chair of a committee has voting privileges, may make motions, and participate in debate.
- 10.06 All committees' meetings, standing and ad hoc committees, shall take minutes at each and every committee meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting shall be approved at the next committee meeting. Within 7 days of approval at the following committee meeting the minutes shall be available for public inspection and the minutes must be turned into the secretary of the Fulton County board.
- 10.07 Committees may engage in electronic conferencing for the purpose of collecting information or vetting potential appointees for various boards across the county. Committee members are permitted to attend committee or board meetings via electronic means in the following circumstances:
 - (a) As described in Article II, during a declared disaster

- (b) If a quorum of the members of the public body is physically present, a member of that body may attend the meeting by other means, by video or audio conference, if the member is prevented from physically attending because of:
 - (i) personal illness or disability; or
 - (ii) employment purposes or the business of the public body; or
 - (iii) a family or other emergency.
- (c) If a member wishes to attend a meeting by other means pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Article 10.07, the member must notify the county clerk before the meeting unless advance notice is impractical.

10.08 Executive sessions shall be recorded as required by law.

Article XI. Select Committees and Other Appointments

- 11.01 From time to time the chair of the county board with the advice and consent of the county board is empowered and directed to make certain appointments of individuals to various boards, committees, and districts, and the chair of the county board shall do so according to law.
- 11.02 If Illinois law is silent as to how any appointee shall be nominated and/or selected, the process of nomination and/or selection shall be as follows:
 - (a) Members shall be notified of openings of appointments to “select committees” to enable submitting nominations. Said chair shall, however, retain full authority to accept or reject any such nomination as is provided by law.
- 11.03 The chair may, after receiving the nominations described in the preceding paragraph, assign the appointment to the committee as described. In the absence of any nomination, the chair shall set forth the name of the individual the chair desires to appoint and cause to be prepared a written resolution for said appointment.
- 11.04 All select committee appointment resolutions shall be read by the ex-officio clerk of the board on behalf of the chair of the board. Such resolution duly seconded, shall be subject to the advice and consent of the county board.
- 11.05 The chair shall have the power to appoint ad hoc committees to propose nominees to fill vacancies for the following positions:
 - (a) Supervisor of assessments
 - (b) County comptroller
 - (c) County highway superintendent
 - (d) County camping & recreation site superintendent
 - (e) County officer vacancy
 - (f) County board member vacancy
 - (g) County administrator
 - (h) County board administrative assistant

Article XII. Executive Session of Committees

- 12.01 Closed session requires approval by a majority of the quorum present.

- 12.02 Board members may attend and have access to minutes resulting from any open or closed meetings or sessions of committees of which they are not members, except when the committee chair, in consultation with the state’s attorney, unless impracticable, determines that a board member possesses a personal interest in the acts of the committee and/or has taken a position adversarial to that of the county in pending or probable or imminent litigation.
- 12.03 At the discretion of the committee chair during the meeting, the board member may participate in the meeting but without voting or seating privileges.
- 12.04 The county clerk, as ex-officio clerk of the board, shall participate in the meeting for the purpose of keeping an accurate record of the meeting for official storage. However, where the committee chair, in consultation with the state’s attorney, unless impracticable, determines that the county clerk possesses a personal interest in the acts of the committee and/or has taken a position adversarial to that of the county in pending or probable or imminent litigation, a deputy clerk shall participate in the place of the county clerk. If no deputy clerk is available who is not similarly excepted from participation, then the chair shall appoint a member of the committee to act as a recording secretary.
